The background is a warm, brown-toned illustration of a café interior. At the top, seven dark, dome-shaped pendant lights hang from the ceiling, each casting a soft, circular glow downwards. Below the lights, the text 'Café de Ouinly Beigé's' is centered in a white, stylized font with a thin black outline. In the lower half of the image, three dark brown clipboards are arranged horizontally. Each clipboard has a silver clip at the top and a white rectangular label in the center. The first clipboard on the left is labeled 'HOT DRINKS', the middle one 'COLD DRINKS', and the one on the right 'PASTRIES'. To the left of the clipboards, a portion of a wooden counter is visible, with the word 'Coffee' written in a cursive script above a glass display case. The overall aesthetic is cozy and rustic.
